RIBBON

by Bob Manders

A single piece featuring clean lines, welded together as one whole, defines the design of our RIBBON hardware series by Bob Manders. The unique design is based on the architectural style 'Ribbon', to which the series owes its name, where walls, floors, and roofs join to form a single, self-supporting yet interlinked structure. This results in an unbroken sense of movement and momentum as the areas flow into one another. That same principle can also be observed in the hardware series. Traditional handles are composed of three pieces: the rose, the neck, and the lever. This is how the RIBBON lever handle differs: these three parts are made out of just one single piece, with a unique bayonet fixation system. RIBBON is a comprehensive total concept collection that brings together lever handles, window handles, pull handles, cabinet fittings, and other accessories.

Design philosophy: I am writing you a long letter, because I don't have time for a short one... (E.B. Pascal)

Bob Manders' designs reflect a true understanding of the past and a great fascination for innovation, resulting in a balanced space. The unpredictability and innovativeness of his designs are evident in the FORMANI RIBBON by Bob Manders series. This hardware collection is based on the architectural principle 'RIBBON', where walls, floors, and roof unite within a building to form a single, self-supporting yet interlinked structure. This construction results in a continued sense of movement and momentum as the spaces flow into one another. His passion for innovation is reflected in the way the lever handle is shaped.

Brand story
